Mrs. Tamara J. Mills, Coordinator of Instruction, has been vigilant about offering Lessons in a Lunch Box to every elementary school in Worcester County. Her commitment paid off for the district. Elementary schools throughout the county have sent children home with lots to continue learning about and even more to smile about. Mrs. Candy Edwards-Roach, senior policy analyst in the Governor's Office for Children, represented the Hogan administration in a most impressive show of ongoing support for oral health education in Maryland public schools. She addressed students at Ocean City Elementary School, during the February 17th presentation to celebrate National Children's Dental Health Month. Visit www.mycohi.org to read the complete press release, "Maryland Governor Represented at Lessons in a Lunch Box Presentation."
