- February is National Children's Dental Health Month and also this month we will commemorate the 5th anniversary of the death of Deamonte Driver, the 12-year old Maryland child who died after a tooth infection spread to his brain.
- During the forum we will discuss the changes that have been made on the federal, state, and local levels regarding children's access to dental care and what needs to be done moving forward to make sure no child will suffer Deamonte Driver's fate.

Panelists include:

- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
- Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services
- Pew Charitable Trusts
- Children's Dental Health Project
- Dr. Joshua Sharfstein, the Maryland Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene
